

1. Title: The Walk In Nature

Size: 9 x 16 Medium:

Nature photography

Completion: September 3, 2020

Exhibition Text

The Walk in Nature was taken in Wilson Park, the photo focuses on nature and its beauty but its main focus is the sun in the center of the photo. The photo shows a view of Wilson Park's lake surrounded by trees. There are more trees and a sunset in the middle and a purple and white sky. I wanted to show this photo for my final piece because of the wildlife, landscape and the texture with the mixture of different colors by changing the brightness, contrast, saturation, warmth, skin tone and shadow of the picture. I never had an inspiration in photography until I discover an incredible photographer

2. Title: Eye of the Tree

For my 3rd Project I chose photography, the "Eye of the Tree" is a photo that was captured at Wilson Park at sunset. The picture shows a mix of light and shadow in the sky with trees around but Its main focus is the sun shining on top of the tree in the center of the photo which was inspired by a photograph from Carr Clifton.

3. Title: My Mistake

Size: 30cm x 30cm

Medium: Oil Paint

Completion: November 1, 2020

Exhibition Text

This final piece was cropped from my photography piece, I wanted the movement of my painting to have a realism style rather than impressionism but this was a struggle because I was trying to figure what correct oil painting colors I had to use to mix it together in order to get at least the closest coloring that was similar to my photography piece.

4. Title: Starry Forest

Size: 16 x 20 inches

Medium: Painting

Completion: December 2021

Exhibition Text

For my 4th project, I've painted a landscape night. The painting shows a house with a watermill in the back of the house where water falls into the river and in the distance is a bridge and surrounding all of this are the trees. I enjoy night time more then the day time so I wanted the purpose of this piece to represent a peaceful and quiet night

5. Title: Gloomy Sunset

Size: 9 x 16

Medium: Cloudscape Photography

Completion: August 2021

Exhibition Text

For my 2nd project, I chose photography. The photo, Gloomy Sunset was captured in the parking lot off of 27th and Loomis. The picture shows a mixture of black and purple clouds together with a sunset in the background and a mix of yellow, purple and blue in above the clouds in the sky which was inspired by Richard Wong. The focus is the sunset between the clouds.

6. Title: 6:00 am Sunrise

Size: 45 x 45

Medium: Sunrise Photography

Completion: March 2021

Exhibition Text

For my choice piece, I've chosen photography. This photo was captured outside my window at sunrise. The piece shows purple to pink cloudy sky at sunrise with a few trees, a electric pole. The focus of this piece is the 2 different colors in the sky going from purple to pink. I wanted the focus of my piece to be the sky that connects to my inspiration, Marc Adamus. This piece, I adjusted the tint, brightness and Saturation focusing on the colorful sky.

7. Title: View from Afar

Size: 16 x 20

Medium: Painting

Completion: December 2021

Exhibition Text

For my 6th project, I painted a landscape and a village during the day. In the painting, it shows a river and a bridge above on the lower right corner of the canvas, across the bridge is a small village with 4 buildings surrounded with small clouds in the sky during the day. I wanted to paint something like this because I love the idea of a small village out in the woods somewhere isolated from the rest of the world like a hidden village and I was inspired by "View of Delft" by Johannes Vermeer.

8. Title: Sunset City

Size: Medium: Painting

Completion: November 2021

Exhibition Text

For my 4th project, I painted a sunset landscape of a city. The piece shows a dark blue, red, orange and yellow sky blended together. A few buildings are painted in black and below that is a reflection of it all in the water. This painting I made was inspired by "Impressions sunrise" painting by Johannes Vermeer. The focus on the painting is the buildings

9. Title: Pillar Fruit Basket
Size: 16 x 20 inches
Medium: Painting
Completion: August 2021

Exhibition Text

For my first project, I chose to paint a canvas showing a Basket with different types of fruit in a basket on top of pillars which was inspired by a still life painting and a Baroque painting of a fruit by Caravaggio. The purpose of this piece is that I wanted my piece to represent life and nature in a unique and colorful way.
